this book brings together the perspectives of apocalypticism and early jewish mysticism to illuminate aspects of new testament theology the first part begins with a consideration of the mystical character of apocalypticism and then uses the book of revelation and the development of views about the heavenly mediator figure of enoch to explore the importance of apocalypticism in the gospels and acts the pauline letters and finally the key theological themes in the later books of the new testament the second and third parts explore the character of early jewish mysticism by taking important themes in the early jewish mystical texts such as the temple and the divine body to demonstrate the relevance of this material to new testament interpretation

the secret of the kingdom of god argues that the evangelist mark should be recognized as much a creative author as any of the other gospel writers this new approach examines mark s text against the available evidence of the literary heritage of first century authors their education and the writing practices in the greco roman world it is also focused on the text of mark s gospel as an intelligible whole created by mark using literary models well known to him and to his audience this new paradigm accordingly shows another moment in the developing theology of the early church i e how a story of the life of jesus can be used to present the significance of the death of jesus for his later disciples mark is clear about his purpose his first verse indicates that he will narrate the beginning of the gospel good news 1 1 of jesus resurrection and he announces the imminent kingdom of god in jesus first words 1 15 the secret mystery of the kingdom of god is then said to be disclosed to those who were his disciples 4 11 and to those who would later be his disciples 8 34 9 1 that purpose is clear from the very structure of mark s composition where he discloses the secret of the kingdom of god in his central section 8 27 10 45 and frequently shifts from the narration of jesus story to episodes depicting discipleship mark s gospel then is written for christians to emphasize that they are essentially modelling their lives after jesus life and death and that jesus surrendering of himself to god s will for him led to jesus resurrection and is the good news for us bringing the hope of our own continuance after death the kingdom of god is the reality of all those who live this way in every generation and era to those outside it remains a secret or a mystery they cannot fathom to those inside it is a place where the love one extends to others brings an intimacy with the risen jesus and with the one who sent him 9 37
